Stage One (8-13 years) $96/$106

This fun, challenging, creative program develops students' theatrical abilities. Students will learn through theatre games, improvisation activities, and from the process of rehearsing and performing a play. Stage One participants benefit from the challenge of creating drama in an intimate space. Stage One will begin Saturday, August 14, 2010 with informal try-outs from 2:30-3:30pm at Lilac Cottage, 1911 N. Sheridan Road in Bowen Park under the direction of Margaret Hughes. The director in conjunction with each student's schedule will determine complete rehearsal schedule. A weeknight rehearsal will be scheduled once each week with Saturday afternoon rehearsals as well.

The Benefits of THEATRE

- Numerous studies have demonstrated a correlation between drama involvement and academic achievement. Students who participate in drama often experience improved reading comprehension, maintain better attendance, and stay more engaged in school.
- The act of performing can help students and youth recognize their potential for success and improve their confidence.
- Youth gain self-confidence, motivation and have higher levels of empathy and tolerance toward others.
- Improvisational theatre contributes to improved reading achievement and attitude.
- Participate in the ARTS and GROW!
