Theatre Improv I (9-13 years) $60/$65

Spontaneous acting elicits the truth in acting. Improvisation is good for group focus, social interaction, team building, and the free flowing of ideas and concepts. Improvisation teaches you to think on your feet, to adapt quickly to new elements, to develop group minded thinking, and anticipate the actions of team members. Class is instructed by Tray Wallace.

DANCE STUDIO CLASSESTai Chi Chuan (Adult) 80/$85

An introduction to Tai Chi Chuan (meaning “supreme ultimate fist”) and Qigong (meaning “breathing exercise”). These form a Chinese martial art, and ancient system of movement and meditation. Through a series of slow movements, students develop balance, form and mental calmness. Slow stretching and gentle exercises will bring increased strength, flexibility and deep sense of serenity. Practicing Tai Chi and Qigong helps relieve stress and promotes a sense of physical and mental well-being. Instructor Bob Schwartz, recently retired from Abbott Laboratories, has studied Wu Shu for more than 30 years, Tai Chi Chuan for more than 25 years and Judo/Jujutsu/Taijutsu for more than 20 years.
