Bowen Park Opera Company The Life and Love of Shakespeare's Women

Bowen Park Opera presents an evening of music inspired by Shakespeare's works. From the spirited sisterhood of his Falstaff plays to the tragic innocence of Juliet, Shakespeare's women experience the full range of human passions. Ingénues, bawdy women, women disguised as men, and those falsely accused of adultery have motivated Handel, Purcell, Verdi, Bellini, Gounod and Porter (among others) to set Shakespeare's themes to music. Join us as we experience The Life and Love of Shakespeare's Women. Feb 26, 27, 28* and March 5, 6, and 7*, 2010

*Performances have an 8 pm curtain and the Sunday curtain is 3 pm for both the spring theatre production and the opera.

Bowen Park Theatre Company The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (Abridged)

By Adam Long, Daniel Singer and Jess Winfield.
This show is a parody of the plays written by William Shakespeare with ALL of them being performed (in shortened form) during the show by only three actors. The fourth wall is nonexistent in this performance – in fact, the show also known as The Complete Wrks of Wllm Shkspr (Abridged) shatters this wall. The audience is a player in this show...come and find out why each performance may be different from another!
April 2, 3, 4*, 9, 10, 11*, 16, and 17, 2010

This program is partially supported by a grant from the Illinois Arts Council
