Day Trips

Galos Salt-Iodine Cave

Expand your horizons and try something out of the ordinary! Relax in the Galos Salt Iodine cave in Chicago. During the winter season you will appreciate the warm 75 degree temperature of the cave. No talking, just peace, and the sounds of the ocean engulf the room as the lights are turned down and you sit and relax. It is a 45 minutes session of tranquility. There are many benefits of the cave, if undergone more than ten times; including alleviation of sinus problems, nervous system dysfunctions, rheumatic diseases, and inflammation of the upper respiratory system. Your ailments won't be cured after our session, but your curiosity of this salt mineral marvel from the black seas will be. Please wear white socks for the cave. Lunch is at the Jolly Inn, a Polish/American restaurant that won't leave you hungry since the buffet consists of 24 home style cooked dishes, full salad and fruit bar. If you have already experienced the cave, come again for a peaceful day out of the house. Fee includes van transportation, Galos Salt Iodine Cave session, and lunch.
