PRESS RELEASE

Waukegan Park District Wins Government Finance Officers Award for Sixth Consecutive Year

Waukegan, IL (March 2, 2017) –The Waukegan Park District received the Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting from the Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada (GFOA) for its Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2016.

“The Certificate of Achievement is the highest form of recognition in governmental accounting and financial reporting and its attainment represents a significant accomplishment by the government and its management,” according to GFOA Executive Director Jeffery Esser in his letter to the District. The Financial Reporting Achievement Award recognizes Jim Glogovsky, Superintendent of Finance & Administration, as the individual responsible for the award-winning Comprehensive Annual Financial Report. It is the sixth consecutive year the Waukegan Park District has been awarded the Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting.

Earlier in 2016, the Waukegan Park District Budget was recognized with the Distinguished Budget Presentation Award from the GFOA. According to George Bridges, President of the Waukegan Park District Board of Commissioners, “We are pleased to have the Waukegan Park District receive these two awards which are the highest forms of recognition in the government finance world. Thanks to Jim Glogovsky and his team. They do a great job leading the rigorous budget and audit processes. These awards recognize the District’s ongoing commitment to excellence and transparency.”

An impartial panel of finance professionals judges the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report to ensure the document meets the program's high standards of financial reporting and in the "spirit of full disclosure" clearly communicates the organization's financial story and motivates potential users and user groups to read the report. The Government Finance Officers Association is a nonprofit professional association serving more than 17,500 government finance professionals with offices in Chicago, IL, and Washington, D.C.
