Waukegan, Illinois (January 29, 2020) – The Illinois Association of Park Districts (IAPD) recognized Waukegan Park District Commissioner Janet E. Kilkelly with the 2020 Mike Cassidy Commissioner Community Service Award at the 2021 IAPD/IPRA Soaring to New Heights Conference. The annual award is presented to a commissioner whose volunteer service to their community emulates the vision and voluntary efforts demonstrated by late Freeport Park District Commissioner Mike Cassidy to improve the quality of life for those in his community.

Commissioner Kilkelly was first elected to the Waukegan Park District Board of Commissioners in 1997 and has served as the President, Vice President, and Treasurer. While serving on the Board of Commissioners, the Waukegan Park District has been awarded the National Recreation and Park Association (NRPA) 2013 Gold Medal Award for Excellence in Park and Recreation Management, accredited by the Commission for Accreditation of Park and Recreation Agencies (CAPRA), and named an Illinois Distinguished Accredited Agency.

During her tenure, the Waukegan Park District has expanded park and open space and has constructed state-of-the-art facilities, such as the Field House Sports, Fitness & Aquatics Center and Waukegan's Greg Petry SportsPark. Additionally, several key parks in the community have been transformed, including Clearview Park, Eugene P. King Park, and Corrine J. Rose Park. Commissioner Kilkelly has also advocated for the continuation of existing programs and supported the growth of new programs for individuals of all ages.

In service to her community, Commissioner Kilkelly currently serves at the Waukegan City Clerk and has previously served as a Waukegan Township Trustee.

Commissioner Kilkelly stated, "No one is an island and having a professional staff to guide and execute the vision of the Waukegan Park District has resulted in a Gold Medal Award and several regional facilities and parks. My family and I are committed to giving back to our community by getting involved and giving of our time and resources. The result has been returned tenfold and I so appreciate the community for believing and trusting in me four times to represent them on the Waukegan Park District Board of Commissioners. Thank you to the Illinois Association of Park Districts for this award. I am tremendously honored."

Jay Lerner, Executive Director, congratulated Commissioner Kilkelly and stated, "Commissioner Kilkelly has gone above and beyond the call of duty as a park commissioner. She is an enthusiastic supporter of the Waukegan Park District and is fully committed to enhancing the quality of life in Waukegan through parks and recreation. Her leadership and giving spirit over the last 20+ years truly makes our community a better place."
