PRESS RELEASE

Worldwide Day of Play
September 19, 2015 from 11:00am-2:00pm
Field House Sports and Fitness Center
800 Baldwin Avenue, Waukegan

Waukegan, IL (September 1, 2015) – The Waukegan Park District invites the public to Worldwide Day of Play on Saturday, September 19, 2015 from 11:00am-2:00pm at the Field House Sports and Fitness Center. The event includes a host of fun activities planned for kids, families, and adults of all ages. Organized games and contests such as dodgeball, soccer, and basketball will be set up in the gym. Children and adults are urged to try something new from the list of activities offered including: First Swing Golf, USTA Tennis, the batting cage, crafts, Baggo, Zumba for all ages, a 3-point shooting contest, and supervised open climbing wall during the entire event!

AbbVie will be holding fun jump rope and hula hoop contests as well as giving away cookbooks, jump ropes and hula hoops. In addition, they will be offering demonstrations and tips for eating healthy.

Cha! Cha!, the loveable red-eyed tree frog mascot from the Rainforest Café will once again roam the event. Cha! Cha! will be handing out restaurant coupons and will take keepsake photos with children.

Adults will have free admission to the Fitness Center and indoor walking/running track. There will also be information and certified fitness staff available for parents interested in finding ways to make their families healthier and learning new ways to promote physical activity. Vista Health System will be offering free health and wellness screenings for all participants.

This day of fun is FREE for anyone who wants to participate! Stop by the Field House at Hinkston Park or call 847-782-3300 for more information. Worldwide Day of Play is an annual celebration that promotes active play for kids and adults of all ages. The event encourages children to “get out and play” in an effort to fight childhood obesity.

The Waukegan Park District would like to thank Vista Health System and Great Lakes Credit Union for their generous support of this event.
