Guitar and Ukulele

Ed Jimenez

Guitar Faculty

A member of the faculty since 2012

Ed Jimenez has been on the faculty of the Jack Benny Center teaching guitar and ukulele since 2012.

Mr. Jimenez received his degree from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in English and Creative Writing. Ed minored in Music Theory and Composition from the U of I. Ed is also bi-lingual.

Ed has been a private teacher for a year. He works out of his house and at Family Piano.

Ages: Teaches students 9 years and older. Ed will evaluate students beginning at the age of seven to determine if the child is ready for lessons. The student would be required to take an evaluation session with the instructor.

Books: The instructor creates his own charts/graphs for the student. Exercises are developed and determined by the student's needs.

Teaching Philosophy: My teaching philosophy is completely student based. I have no set teaching guidelines or plan that is set for ALL students, but instead shape the class based on the student's needs and desires.
