

Jack Dudley

Jack Dudley

String Faculty

A member of the faculty since 1994

Cello and Bass

Jack Dudley has been on the faculty of the Jack Benny Center teaching primarily cello and string bass since 1994. Mr. Dudley will also coach ensembles and is available for violin and viola lessons.

Jack has BS and MS degrees in Music Education from the University of Illinois-Urbana. He is certified to teach music in Illinois for grades K-12 and he is also certified as a school administrator.

Jack is currently teaching public school music. He has taught orchestra since 1980. He was also a school administrator for 8 years.

Ages: Teaches children to adult, as well as the beginner or the experienced string student. Beginning with age 6.

Books: Bring the current book and after evaluation, Mr. Dudley will make recommendations

Teaching Philosophy: Every student can learn; every student has talent; some develop faster than others

WAUKEGAN PARK DISTRICT
Cultural Arts Division

PHONE
847-360-4740

WEB
www.jackbennycenter.org
FACEBOOK: Jack Benny Center for the Arts
TWITTER: JackBennyCenter

Jack Benny Center for the Arts
39 Jack Benny Drive, Waukegan, IL 60087