VOICE

Josephine Huber has been on the faculty of the Jack Benny Center teaching voice since 1998.

Mrs. Huber holds a BA in music with an emphasis in Voice from Trinity College in Deerfield and a Church Music Diploma from Chicago's Moody Bible Institute. Jo is published in the Who's Who Among America's Teachers (2000 and 2004) and is a member of the National Association of Teachers of Singing.

Jo has been a voice instructor since 1981. She has also taught at the Zion Conservatory, Zion-Benton High School, Circle Center Pre-School, and in her home. She has also taught Kindermusik and beginner piano. She has served as choir director in several area churches in the Waukegan and Libertyville area. She has directed middle school and high school choirs. She currently teaches preschool music classes.

Ages: Teaches sixth grade and up. She will evaluate students to determine if the child is ready for vocal lessons at the age of nine. Students under grade 6 will be required to take an evaluation session with the instructor.

Books: Each student is different and I try to find music to fit their individual needs. I provide the music or have the student purchase the music from me.

Teaching Philosophy: I believe everyone can sing and I want to share this joy of singing with my students and guide them in the development of their voices. It gives me great pleasure to hear them progress.
