Violin and Viola

Kathleen Dudley has been on the faculty of the Jack Benny Center providing violin and viola instruction since 1981. She teaches traditional, classical, fiddle and jazz styles. She will tailor lessons to the student's preferences.

Mrs. Dudley received has a Bachelor of Science and her Masters of Science in Music Education as well as 30 hours of post-Masters. Kate holds a Type 3 and 9 teacher certification for K-12 music.

Kathleen has taught for the Waukegan Public Schools since 1983 and has been an orchestra teacher in both the elementary and middle schools.

Ages: Teaches students who are children, adult, new or experienced. Children ages 3-5 require an evaluation lesson with the instructor to determine if the child will be able to focus and a readiness for lessons.

Books: Bring the current book the student is working in or Suzuki One for the new student.

Teaching Philosophy: All students have the potential to realize their musical talents. With proper encouragement/instruction all students will experience some aesthetic success in musical enjoyment.
