

WAUKEGAN PARK DISTRICT

PRESS RELEASE

When School Year Ends June 2, Park District Will Offer Programs
For Children Ages 6-12
Tuesday, June 3-Friday, June 6, 2014
Regular Camp Season Begins June 9 & Ends August 15, 2014

Waukegan, IL (April 18, 2014)... As a condition of the recent negotiations by the teacher's union, this school year will end June 2, 2014. Families can look to the Waukegan Park District for their child care needs. The Park District will offer programs when school is not in session, Tuesday June 3, 2014 through Friday June 6, 2014.

The We Have Off (W.H.O.) Program is for ages six through 12. The program will be held at the Belvidere Recreation Center in a safe, supervised environment. Included are arts and crafts, sports, indoor and outdoor games and trips to various locations providing activities and entertainment.

To accommodate working parents, the program would run Tuesday through Friday, from 7:30 am until 6:00 pm. The cost for each single-day session is $26 per child for Waukegan Park District residents or $29 per child for nonresidents. Sibling discounts are available as well as financial assistance for those that qualify.

The daily fee includes a healthy lunch. Children should bring a water bottle and an afternoon snack each day.

Regular summer camps begin the next week, June 9 and run through August 15. Half and full day options are available as well as before and after care. For more information, please check out the summer brochure which will arrive the first week in May , call (847) 360-4700 or visit the District's website at www.waukeganparks.org

About the Waukegan Park District

Established on December 26, 1916, the district has 47 properties and 720 acres of land, including the 18-hole Bonnie Brook and 9-hole Greenshire Golf Courses.
